bio

HARTFIELD are set to release their long-awaited debut album "True color, True lie" domestically in the US on Clairecords (and simultaneously in Japan on Vinyl Junkie Recordings) on February 10, 2004. The album was mixed by Scott Cortez of ASTROBRITE.

Hartfield are a part of the shoegaze movement in Japan. Their sound combines dreamy melodies, noisy guitars, and breathy and cute male/female vocals. As far as we're concerned, they are at the top of their class

Hartfield debuted in 2001, when they contributed to the "SEVEN WINTERS" compilation, which was released from "curse of MY BLOODY VALENTINE". Prior to that, they released three independently produced cassette singles and sold them at indie record stores of Tokyo - and sold over 1000 copies in Tokyo alone.

In 2002, Hartfield signed to Vinyl Junkie Recordings. They also participated in the compilation album "Way of a Ray". Finally, they recorded their long-awaited debut album on October 24 2003. In addition, Hartfield appear on the brand new "Pacific Union" compilation Album, which is released simultaneously in Japan (Vinyl Junkie Recordings) and the US (Clairecords) coinciding with the release of Hartfield's album.

Two tracks here are exclusive to the US version of the album.

 NOTE!! Absolutely NO export to Japan!!! ***
